PUT TO THE TEST.

French Parliament Called on to Sustain the Government.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE TAKEN.

After a heated argument the Chamber decides that the present government can amply take care of the country. The vote was nearly four to one in favor of sustaining the government.

PARIS, Dec. 24.—The scene in the chamber of deputies yesterday when M. Millevoye interpolated the ministry regarding advances of money by the Panama Canal company, was of the most stormy character. M. Millevoye said that he desired to question the government as to the facts in its possession relating to the use of contributions by a former premier from the Panama Canal company, whose corrupt and criminal operations were now being investigated.

M. Ribot, in behalf of the government, said he accepted immediate discussion of the subject.

President Floquet thereupon vacated the chair, M. Paytral taking his place and ascending the tribune. There was a hush in the chamber as the former minister began his address of exculpation, and every face was turned toward the speaker with the most eager interest.

M. Floquet repeated what he had already said before the committee of investigation. He reiterated with emphasis that, while a member of the ministry he has never received money from the Panama Canal company for any purpose whatever, and he denied any improper purpose in the insertion of paid political advertisements in the press.

Count Jules DeBarnes, an ardent Royalist, indulged in violent attack on M. Floquet, and denounced his conduct in the alleged bribing of newspapers.

M. Millevoye followed in a scathing speech. The first words of the Boulangist deputy showed his purpose to precipitate a crisis immediately. He spoke briefly but violently. The present cabinet, he said, was trusted neither by the people nor their representatives. Both its members and adherents were in the shadow of a fatal suspicion. Men chosen to serve the high interests of France were falling daily under charges of misrepresenting those interests. The time had come for an appeal to the preferences of the electors. On behalf of those who had the honor of France at heart he demanded a dissolution.

At this point an uproar on the floor interrupted M. Millevoye and he stood silent until the cheers and shouts of protest subsided. Then he moved a vote of "no confidence." As he left the tribune there was little demonstration and M. Ribot, the premier, rose to defend the government, amid profound silence.

The purpose of M. Millevoye, he says, was apparent to all. He intended to unload scandal, after scandal, upon the government until he wrecked it. Cries of "No, no," from the Boulangists greeted this statement, and M. Millevoye shouted: "The facts will suffice to wreck it when all is known."

M. Millevoye continued: "M. Ribot is attempting to bring to trial not individuals but the republican institutions of France. His attack was directed, not against the cabinet nor against those persons charged with corruption, but against national institutions, which had been built up by the labor and self-sacrifice of devoted patriots. The plotters against the republic should not delude themselves with the idea that a dissolution would accomplish their ends, for the people knew their enemies and the masks of their enemies."

"Honesty in politics above all, I say," M. Ribot called out as he turned to face the Right. "But no toleration of men who conspire to ruin our republic. The whole machinery of the law has been set in motion to punish the guilty. Can you not wait for the verdict? Others may be deceived by tardy protestations of unsullied purity, but surely the gentlemen before me are in a position to perceive the motive of this sudden show of virtue on the part of certain persons. This agitation is intended not to purify the government and not to serve the people, but merely to serve the ends of certain designing politicians. To those gentlemen I say: The present government will not allow itself to be disturbed or intimidated by their demonstrations."

The applause with which this statement was received was stilled suddenly by M. DeRoudele who sprang to his feet and waving his right arm above his head, shouted: "Down with the parliamentary system."

After the president had restored order by repeated appeals to the deputies, M. Ribot concluded his defence with the words: "Those who flatter themselves that there is no government in France are deluded and, if the occasion came, the present cabinet will not hesitate to prove it. This government is prepared to defend the republic."

The firmness and calmness of M. Ribot's address evidently had won for him the sympathy of the chamber, for as he left the tribune, he was cheered with exceptional enthusiasm. Even M. DeRoudele seemed to realize this, and his subsequent speech was mild to the point of tameness. He explained his plan for reviving the constitution at some length, and in his peroration astounded his hearers by declaring that he felt confidence in the probability and intelligence of the ministry. M. Millevoye's motion of "no confidence" was then put, and was lost by a vote of 353 to 91. Tremendous cheering and applause from the Left followed the announcement of the result.

QUEEN OF THE ANTILLES.

Notes of Her Trade in Sugar, Tobacco and Fruit.

HAVANA, Dec. 24.—It is generally believed that before the close of the present month operations will be fairly under way on a majority of the large sugar plantations on the island. The cool weather which has recently prevailed throughout the island has in some measure retarded the growth of the cane, but at the same time has considerably hastened its ripening.

A majority of the sugar factories at Sagua have improved their machinery during the past season. The "Centrales" convenio, at Caibarien; Las Bocas, at Trinidad; Fortuna, at Guanajay; Santa Catalina, at Macuriges; Parque Alto, at Cienfuegos; and Resolucion, at Sauga, have begun grinding. A small parcel of new sugar, the first of the new crop to be marketed, has already been received at Sagua.

According to recent cablegrams from Madrid, the queen regent has signed decrees establishing manufacturing duties on sugar and tobacco. Centrifugal and white clayed sugars will pay on being removed from the warehouses or the plantations from which they are directly exported $1 per ton; Muscavadoes and molasses sugars, fifty cents a ton. No tax will be levied on molasses. Instead of increased duties on export tobacco, as was requested by the manufacturers, cigars will pay 40 cents per mille, cigarettes, 30 cents per mille cases; scraps, $1.12 1/2 per 100 kilogrammes; leaf tobacco from the western part of the island, 78 1/5 cents per 100, and that from the eastern part, 42 1/10 cents per 100 kilogrammes.

The fresh fruit exporters recently formed a kind of a trust for the purpose of controlling the exportations of such fruit and have already made the necessary arrangements, which will go into operation as soon as the pineapple season opens. Since the 1st inst. an excise duty of one cent per box of one hundred matches has been established.

AFFAIRS IN VENEZUELA.

General Crespo III.—Doesn't Want to Be Elected President Until 1894.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—The Herald's cable from Caracas says:

General Crespo was overcome by an unexpected attack of illness at the cabinet meeting last Monday. He has been confined to his home with the grip since that time. General Crespo contemplates retiring to his country house when sufficiently recovered to travel. It is said at the capital that either General Guerra, Pietral, Colina, or his brother Luis Crespo will be placed in nominal control of the government until he can resume charge.

The belief is growing here that General Crespo does not desire to be elected president until 1894, and that he will decline, in spite of the popular demand for his election for the short as well as the long term, to allow his name to go before the national assembly when it meets in February to choose a president to serve until 1894.

FEMALE DYNAMITER.

A Woman Arrested with a Large Amount of Dynamite in Her Possession.

MARTIN'S FERRY, O., Dec. 24.—Mrs. M. E. C. Lepe, who has been boarding with Frank Hanson, on Penn street, was arrested yesterday with a large quantity of dynamite and caps and fuse in her room, with which she threatened to blow up Hanson's house.

She had been out late at nights and her movements were very mysterious. She taught school in Wheeling sixteen years ago, wrote a book exposing prominent people, was arrested for this, and since that time has threatened to make it hot for certain persons. She recently received ten pounds of dynamite from Pittsburg by express.

Marvelous Tale.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—It is alleged that Dr. Albert Shunk performed an operation on Jimmy McCaughy, aged twelve, to relieve him from appendicitis. Dr. Shunk claimed the boy was dying, and would be dead in one hour. The patient was quickly placed on a table, and while under the influence of a slight anesthetic an opening about eight inches long was made in the wall of the abdomen. From the incision there was at once a plentiful flow of pus. No sooner had this taken place than the pulse ceased to beat, the heart stopped, and every evidence of the most complete collapse betokened the presence of death. Then the doctor poured a pitcher of hot water over the intestines, and the boy revived. The operation was continued, and the boy is now recovering.

Novel Christmas Presents.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 24.—Captain Todd Hall, one of the employees of the house of representatives, bought seventy-five pairs of stockings and presented them to the wives of the members of the legislature, with his compliments, as Christmas presents. The ladies all blushed, but accepted with thanks to "Uncle Todd." He approximated the fitness of the articles by first asking each member the size of shoes his wife wore. Then he would draw from his large assortment what he thought was the corresponding stocking.

Millionaire's Falls Dead.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Josiah M. Fiske, a many times millionaire, and a director of the American Exchange National bank, dropped dead of heart disease in the directors' room of the bank yesterday. Mr. Fiske was seventy-one years of age and a well-known financier.

Steamers Laid Up.

MONTREAL, Dec. 24.—The Beaver Line Steamship company has been obliged to lay its boats up for the winter owing to the depression in ocean carrying trade. The steamship Inake Nopigon, of this line, is ashore in Manchester ship canal.

HOLIDAY TRADE.

How It is at Different Places in the United States.

R. G. DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

Satisfactory in Most Lines in All the Northern Cities, and Southern Cities Have No Reason to Complain—Big Demand for Woolen and Cotton Goods. Fallures of the Week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: Reports of the condition of trade are decidedly more satisfactory in most lines, especially in woollens, though trade in iron and steel is noticeably weaker. The holiday trade throughout the north seems unusually large, especially at Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland, and it is lively at some southern points such as Knoxville, but only fair at Memphis and Little Rock.

In other products distribution appears generally larger than usual for the season, particularly in dry goods, shoes and furniture of the better grade.

The striking feature of the week is the great demand for woolen and cotton goods. All cotton machinery is employed to full capacity, but is behind the demand, and prices are exceedingly firm with tendency to advance. In boots and shoes there also appears a very unusual demand for the season, many spring orders being placed with urgent demand for early delivery.

The iron trade has become decidedly weaker, and holders of pig make concessions of about twenty-five cents, the pressure to sell being mainly northern. For nearly all finished products the demand is slack, and lower prices are made wherever much business is done.

Booster reports that cottons fully maintain the advance in price, and trade in woollens is very promising, and in shoes better, with large orders. Leather is in improved demand and lumber steady, while trade in furniture is good and in groceries large.

At Philadelphia iron is weak, but hardware active and the coal trade fair; chemicals are steady and the tobacco trade good, with some speculation in liquor on account of expected increase in the tax. Trade in dry goods has been gratifying in all respects for the season, save that colder weather has been waiting for heavier goods.

Pig iron is in less demand at Pittsburgh, and orders for finished products not numerous, but the glass trade is fair.

At Cincinnati produce sales exceed last year's, and the market for tropical fruits is strong.

Business is good at Cleveland and at Detroit, and especially in the grocery trade at Indianapolis.

Receipts at Chicago show gains of 10 per cent. in wheat, 20 in hides and sheep, 30 in barley and 50 in butter, compared with last year, but losses of 10 in dressed beef, 20 in flour and cheese, 30 in corn, 40 in hogs, 50 in wool and 70 in rye and pork. General trade is very good though heavy woollens are slow because of the weather.

Retail trade is good with colder weather at Milwaukee; the jobbing trade is good at St. Paul and Minneapolis, and the output of flour is large.

Trade is strong at St. Louis; at Kansas City better than the average for the season and very active at Omaha and Denver.

At New Orleans there is fair activity for the season, though sugar is in large demand and rice improving in price. Speculative markets were much disturbed by large gold exports and the rise in exchange, and the stringency in money on call, which rose from 4 per cent. two weeks ago and 6 one week to 40 per cent. at one time on Monday and is still strong at 6 per cent. Exports of products fall behind last year's, but the outgo of gold is evidently due in the main to foreign sales of securities and whether they will continue, no one can say with certainty.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days as reported to R. G. Dun & Company by telegraph, number for the United States, 233, and for Canada, 18; total of 251, as compared with totals of 304 last week, and 297 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 292, representing 257 failures in the United States and 35 in the Dominion of Canada.

Returned to His Work.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 24.—Banker J. W. Birby, who has been missing for weeks and who was recently heard from by his wife, returned to the cashier's desk in the North End bank yesterday afternoon. He says he became bewildered over the possible failure of some business ventures. He went first to Dakota and then to Texas.

Had It In for His Neighbors.

HAMILTON, Ont., Dec. 24.—Evangelist Edward Best stood at his open window and prayed to the Lord to curse and destroy his neighbors with cholera and smallpox. He was arrested and fined $10 and costs for disorderly conduct. He appealed to the county judge, but his appeal was dismissed yesterday.

Stole the Whisky and Money.

CAMBRIDGE, O., Dec. 24.—While Mrs. Jane Lusk, wife of a prosperous farmer, was driving home with a jug of whisky and $300 which she had drawn from the bank, Marion Duff and Tom Young stole both the jug and the money. When arrested they were drunk.

Gale Along the English Coast.

QUEENSTOWN, Dec. 24.—A violent gale is blowing all along the coast.

ROOF FALLS IN.

Eleven Men Injured, One of Whom May Die.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 24.—The iron supports to the roof of the power house, which is building for the city passenger railway company, on Baltimore street, corner of East street, fell yesterday afternoon and eleven men were injured. One man will probably die.

Those who were hurt were as follows: William Maitland, injuries to hip and chest.

R. B. Missick, ankle sprained.

Uriah B. Kilbourne, of Cambridge, O., left shoulder dislocated.

William Despaux, assistant foreman, right leg broken.

Martin Welsh, lip cut and otherwise bruised.

Gordon Tormey, of Chicago, pelvis fractured and will probably die.

William Cuff, scalp wound and internal injuries; condition serious.

John T. Langville, left leg injured.

Michael Kelly, jarred and shaken up by the fall.

John Coleman, face and head cut.

John Waters is the contractor for the power house buildings. The Youngstown (O.) Bridge company has the contract for the roof, and the brick work is being done by a Baltimore firm.

The four heavy iron truss girders, 150 feet long and weighing three and a half tons, were placed in position several days ago and had been securely braced on the south side of the building. The men were put to work yesterday putting in the braces on the north side.

There were altogether eighteen men at work in the building when the crash came. One brace had been placed in position, and the men were preparing to rivet it when the truss girders began to sway, and before the men could leave the entire structure fell to the floor, carrying with it all the men except three, who clung to the division wall.

All of the men who went down with the structure fell into the pits and were buried in a mass of iron, wood and debris.

The men who were at work on the floor were warned in time to save themselves from serious injury by jumping into the pits. As it was they received slight bruises.

When the patrol wagons arrived those who were severely hurt were carried out on the stretchers and sent to the Baltimore university and city hospitals.

The accident will cause a delay of several weeks in the work on the buildings.

BROKE JAIL.

Four Desperate Prisoners Saw Their Way to Liberty.

WABASH, Ind., Dec. 24.—About 1 o'clock yesterday morning four of the six prisoners in the Wabash county jail effected their escape by sawing the bars leading into the corridor, removing the bolts which held the grating of an outside window and squeezing through the narrow aperture.

The names of the escaped prisoners are: Charles Benton, convicted of burglary and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary; Henry Simmons and William Bernard, in for blowing the safe of the Wabash railroad freight house, and Charles Brown, colored, in for larceny.

Benton is thirty-two years old, weighs 175 pounds, has light hair and is stoop-shouldered. He is a desperado, having served a term in the penitentiary and made two attempts to escape while in jail at Huntington last spring. Bernard is nineteen years old, weighs 115 pounds and has a dark complexion, while Simmons is twenty-eight, weighs 125 pounds and is also dark.

A reward of $50 is offered for Benton and $25 for each of the others by Sheriff Williams. The prisoners remaining in jail assert that they knew nothing of the preparations to escape and did not know when the delivery was effected.

Business Buildings Burned.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Dec. 24.—A destructive fire visited Bloomington yesterday, destroying the Progress printing block, on the northwest corner of the square. It caught from the Holtzman meat market. Only by strong effort were the flames checked. The losses are as follows: Loss on building, the property of Messrs. Buskirk & Gabe; $4,500, insurance $4,000; Progress printing office, loss $1,000, insurance the same; Manley & Company, grocery, loss $3,000, insurance $2,200; Lawrence & Company, saddlery, loss $6,000, insurance $300; A. J. Summers, photographer, loss $800, insurance $600; Mrs. J. S. Payne, millinery, loss $500, insurance $300.

Run Down by an Engine.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 24.—Joseph Holden was instantly killed and John Shea dangerously injured yesterday by being run down by a Panhandle engine. They were section men and were employed in the yards at the time of the accident. They stepped aside to let an engine pass and were run over by another engine going in an opposite direction. Holden was instantly killed. Shea received injuries about the head and had an arm broken.

Damaging Evidence.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Dec. 24.—Collins, the second of the Chesapeake and Ohio train robbers, was arraigned Thursday afternoon and asked for a continuance until Monday, which was refused by Judge Harvey. Miss Eichler, whose lover, the Hero Dick, was killed while struggling with the robbers, was present, and through an interpreter, told her thrilling story. She said that Collins killed Dick.

MARION, IND., Dec. 24.—William and Jacob Galbreath, who stole three chickens from Sidney Harvey have been sentenced to one year's imprisonment.

INTO A DITCH.

Santa Fe Passenger Train Badly Wrecked.

TWO PEOPLE KILLED OUTRIGHT.

Two Boys Fatally Injured and a Number of Others Seriously Hurt—Fire Adds Horror to the Night's Disaster—Marvellous Escape of Many from Instant Death.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Dec. 24.—Santa Fe passenger train No. 8, which left Denver at 11:05 o'clock Thursday night was wrecked between 1 and 2 o'clock, about two miles east of Hasted, a small station fifteen miles north of this city. Several cars left the track and plunged down an embankment fifty feet, piling up the cars in a confused heap. Fire broke out almost immediately.

The train was running at the rate of forty miles an hour. It was marvelous, considering the character of the wreck, that the consequence to passengers was not more serious. Two boys, whose names are unknown, are dying at the hospital in this city. They are believed to be the only ones fatally injured, though almost everybody on the train was more or less severely hurt.

Only the baggage car, which was next to the engine, remained on the track. The express car turned over on its side and rolled down the bank, standing on its end at the foot of the slope. The smoking car followed and immediately took fire. The flames spread to the next car, which was the day coach. The front end of the day coach was on top of the bank and the other end at the bottom. This car caught fire from the other, and both were completely destroyed. The Pullman turned on its side on the bank.

The character of the accident points to the spreading of the rails.

Engineer Weir, of Denver, was in charge of the wrecked train. He and Fireman Lillas, of La Junta, were both uninjured. When the train stopped it was right on the end of bridge No. 201, which crossed a deep gully.

Congressman Lefe Pence and wife were on the train, but were uninjured. The following is a list of those who were on the train, all of whom were more or less hurt:

Two boys, fatally.

Sohn Shallo, of Ada, Kan., injuries not known.

E. E. McDonald, of High street, Denver, injuries not known.

Charles Long and wife, of Needles, Colo., injuries not known.

Colonel W. H. Hanke, of Denver, right arm injured.

S. S. Samuels, of Salt Lake City, injuries not known.

E. L. Story, conductor of the Pullman, right arm broken.

C. H. Kohn, of Denver, sprained left shoulder and bruised side.

Mrs. G. H. Kohn, injured internally.

D. Brusser, badly cut about head and neck.

Nannie Banzler, right side of head badly bruised, right eye entirely closed and arm and shoulder bruised.

George R. Watson, Colorado agent of the Irrigation Age, of Denver, right hip badly injured, neck injured and slightly injured internally.

N. Walte, postal clerk, of Denver, badly bruised hip and leg cut.

Myrtle Van Neenan, head bruised and cut.

A. T. Lawrence, scalp cut.

Charles Lingo, bruised. His wife was internally injured.

Charles Diamond, of New York, bruised on right side and cut on forehead.

Mrs. Diamond, right side and shoulder bruised.

Mrs. Matilda McGee, of Pennsylvania, lip cut.

Claim agents of the Santa Fe and of the Midland were in the city yesterday afternoon, settling up with the injured passengers. Before 8 p. m. thirteen people had been settled with and had left for their homes.

EXPLOSION OF GAS.

Fire Follows and a Vast Amount of Property Is Destroyed.

DULUTH, Dec. 24.—At 2:30 yesterday afternoon there was an explosion of gas in the basement of the retail department of the Chapin & Wells hardware store which shook the entire building. Immediately after the explosion flames shot out which rapidly spread and destroyed the entire structure and its contents, valued at $200,000.

The Farguson block was owned by the Massachusetts Investment company, of Boston, and was valued at $100,000; insurance, $70,000. The Schiller-Hubbard company, wholesale tobacco and cigars, loses $20,000; insurance, $17,000.

The Duluth, Missaba and Northern railroad offices were located in the building and it loses all plans and survey minutes. There were many law offices in the building, and a number of valuable law libraries were also destroyed.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 24.—The following has been received here from a correspondent in the city of Guatemala, capital of the Central American republic of that name. The municipal elections held on Dec. 11 were extremely exciting. The occasion was marked by a number of street brawls, in which seven persons, altogether, were killed. Quiet has now been restored.

Closed Up by the Sheriff.

HAMILTON, O., Dec. 24.—W. H. Deering & Company, of Illinois, has sued P. J. Sommers and John Caldwell, dealers in agricultural implements, for $2,875. An attachment was issued yesterday and the place was closed by the sheriff.

No Bulletin Monday.

Next Monday will be generally observed as a holiday, and in accordance with our custom for years there will be no paper issued from this office. The BULLETIN wishes its many friends and patrons and everybody else a happy Christmas.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive."

The Newport Journal got out a holiday edition Thursday, and it was a handsome and newsy one.

The late Jay Gould was worth about $75,000,000, yet he paid taxes on only $500,000. As a tax-shriker he was as big a success as he was in money-getting.

The Georgia Legislature is overwhelmingly Democratic, and it killed that terrible "wild cat bank" bill a few days ago by an overwhelming vote. Still, Republicans insist that the Democrats are "dead gone" on such banks.

Two Noted Crooks.

The two noted crooks who hunkered F. P. Colcord, of Bourbon, out of $2,000 the other day have been identified by Detective John T. Norris as Walter Haines and Dan Scribner. At their examining trial Thursday, they were held in the sum of $2,000 to answer for their latest trick.

Scribner is known to the police as "Hog Dan" and "Tape-worm Dan." This last sobriquet was given after he had swindled a dozen people in Chicago by representing himself as a tape-worm doctor, and making them believe that he had removed a tape-worm of the most carnivorous variety from their respective inner economies.

He is wanted now for swindling a farmer named Fountain Land out of $5,000 in Nicholasville, Ky., swindling Daniel Steinwents out of $2,000 at Glasgow, Mo., and for other swindles running back for a period of ten years. Norris arrested him once at Logansport, Ind., for swindling S. J. Ward, of Washington C. H., Ohio, out of $5,000. Haines is a son of ex-Sheriff Haines, of Grand Rapids, Mich. His criminal record runs back about eight years.

Through Detective Norris arrangements have been made to arrest the two men on other charges if they succeed in getting bail for the one on which they were arrested at Paris.

The Kentucky Giant.

We were pleased to meet in Wilber, the Kentucky giant now traveling with Messrs. Sells and Rentfrow's circus, none other than Mr. J. W. Grimes, of Maysville, Ky. The Times has many readers in old "Kentucky" who will be pleased to hear from the big man. Mr. Grimes is only twenty-four years of age and weighs 540 pounds. He is quite as generous and complaisant as he is large. He is a member of K. of P. Lodge 292, Buffalo, N. Y. He is delighted with Florida and thinks that we have the finest climate in the world.—Anthony (Fla.) Times.

MAYSVILLE.

The ground was covered with snow Tuesday morning.

Monday was a very disagreeable, rainy and snowy day.

Mrs. Anna Wilson and Miss Mamie Scott were in our midst last week.

Captain G. W. Jackson and son, of Elizaville, dined at the Stonewall House Thursday.

J. A. Jackson has a nice line of jewelry suitable for Christmas presents for both sexes, very cheap for cash.

There are but two of the old stock of Caldwell's now living—Mr. John L. and his sister, Miss Rebecca. In all there were seven children—four boys and three girls.

Mrs. John Alkman, who died at Elizaville last week, was eighty-three years old. Her husband, who recently returned from Arkansas, is very ill. He is in his eighty-seventh year.

R. Lukins, living at Choctaw, three miles east of this place, lost two of his children with diphtheria the same day. They were buried at Mt. Carmel Tuesday. They were aged three and four years.

Those who fail to pay up in full for the DAILY BULLETIN to the 1st of January, 1893, their paper will be discontinued. The agent, J. A. Jackson, says he sets in the new year with new rules. Will not advance money for any one. Twenty-five cents per month in advance is the terms.

GERMANTOWN.

Miss Sadie Broshear is visiting her aunt, Mrs. T. M. Dora.

James R. Hunter, of Murphysville, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Birdie Harris has gone to Maysville to spend the holidays.

Born, to the wife of Dr. C. C. Coburn, on the morning of December 20th, a son.

Large crowds attend the auction of Messrs. Woodward & Johnson, and their goods, we learn, are bringing good prices.

Rev. T. B. Cook preached a stirring discourse Sunday night, in which he pictured in vivid colors the terribly blighting influence upon the moral and religious condition of Kentucky by the race course and the distillery. Passing into Maysville from the west end the following morning, with his remarks fresh in memory as we saw the large volumes of steam and smoke ascending heavenward as if in defiance of him who said by the mouth of his ancient prophet, "Cursed is he that putteth the bottle to his neighbors lips," we wondered how many homes would be rendered miserable, how many hearts made to bleed by this day's work.

The expression "not in it" is not one of such modern slang as would have appeared at first thought; in proof of which witness this sentence from Shakespeare's "Winter's Tale": "And they have a dance, which the wenches say is a gallimaufry of gambols because they are not in it."

A MERRY Christmas and many happy returns of the day for the wholesaled members of that popular and prosperous firm, Messrs. M. C. Russell & Son. They were very generous this morning in their remembrance of the BULLETIN, sending down a little jug of their "Eleven-Year-Old," (the best on the market), for the senior proprietor, a little jug for the junior proprietor, ditto for the editor and a big jug for the "office boys," for all of which they will please accept thanks.

The Millersburg correspondent of the Paris Kentuckian says: "Rev. W. O. Cochran will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday morning. He goes the first of the year to accept a call to the church at Maysville. Mr. Cochran and his family have endeared themselves to our people during their four years residence here, and we are loth to give them up. Maysville may feel proud of securing him, for they can not find more able minister or courteous and Christian gentleman. We bespeak for him every kindness, help and courtesy in his new field and trust he will often return here to see the people who love him so well."

Don't believe for one moment that any one else can show you a larger stock of goods or greater variety than Ballenger, and you will make a mistake if you don't call there before purchasing holiday presents or anything else you want in the jewelry line.

BALLENGER'S

Nothing succeeds like success, and to merit success has been my constant aim. Have I attained it? Yes; I think I have, because I have transacted a larger business during the year just drawing to a close than I have for any two previous years since I entered mercantile life. My motto in the past, and I intend it shall continue in the future, is to give more value than money received and see that you are pleased with your purchase, to have you contented as to style, design, and purity of article selected. This is where my long experience is of value to you, and I feel that I cannot impress you too urgently regarding the advisability of making your purchase as early in the week as possible and in the mornings if convenient. I have a large stock of the choicest novelties in Diamond and Gem Jewelry than ever before. For those who cannot come during the day the store will remain open evenings. You will certainly make a mistake if you fail to call on me when selecting anything in the Jewelry line. Solid Silverware is one of my specialties.

LEADSTO KNOWLEDGE, and knowledge is power in all business as in other walks of life. The opportunity is here, and all you have to do is to grasp it, and it is yours. No doubt you have learned that The Old Reliable Red Corner Building is to be remodeled after the Holidays, and there is but one thing to do, and that is to get the large stock of CLOTHING out of the building before the workmen commence. This is no scheme to gull the consumer, but an actual fact, which has been put off as long as possible, and now they MUST go, at YOUR price, not ours. Our immense stock will be thrown on the market Saturday morning, and we will continue the cut prices until everything is closed out, from a Collar Button to the finest Suit or Overcoat sold in the city. Do not listen to anyone, but come and see for yourself.

BRILLIANT NUPTIALS.

The Chicago Herald Tells of the Marriage of Miss Annie Harahan and Mr. Alfred Dale.

The Chicago Herald says: "Miss Annie Harahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harahan, and Mr. Alfred N. Dale, of Columbia, Tenn., were the principals in a brilliant wedding Tuesday, (Dec. 20th), at the home of the bride, 3922 Lake avenue. The nuptial blessing was pronounced by Archbishop Feehan. Promptly at 5 o'clock Tomaso's mandolins played the opening chords of the Lohengrin march, and in response to them the bridal party entered the drawing room. Miss Bessie Dale, of Columbia, attended the bride, and J. T. Harahan, Jr., acted as best man. The long satin ribbons were held by Mrs. J. B. Shirley, Miss Lee Shirley, of Louisville, Joseph Parks, of Franklin, Tenn., and James Granberry, of Columbia.

"The bride wore a princess robe of white bengaline, with trimmings of duchesse lace. Her long veil was of tulle and she carried American beauty roses. She wore a diamond and pearl necklace and bracelet, the latter set in old family jewels, and both the gift of the groom. The maid of honor was in blue crepe a l'empire, with lace garniture, and her bouquet was of pink carnations. Mrs. Harahan wore a trained gown of lavender velvet enriched with jeweled passementerie and diamond ornaments.

"The floral decorations were elaborate and artistic. The bay window, in which the bridal group stood during the ceremony, was curtained with Japanese vines and smilax, and hung with snowy garlands of roses, chrysanthemums and daffodils. The mantel was banked with ferns, lilies and pink roses, and palms filled in all the corners. In the halls holly and mistletoe were intermingled with the greens. The dining room was in red and white, the table centerpiece an immense heart of jacquemint roses edged with Roman hyacinths.

"Mr. and Mrs. Dale left later in the evening in a private car for New Orleans, Florida and Cuba. Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Harahan, of Kankakee; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rose, of Indianapolis; Wm. Smith, Jr., Miss Lulu Nelson and Payson Smith, of Nashville, Tenn.; J. D. Kehoe, of Maysville, Ky.; Miss Charlotte Henderson, of Columbia, Tenn. Among the resident guests were Judge and Mrs. Gresham."

The bride is a grand-daughter of Mrs. Nora Kehoe, of this city. The groom is a wealthy citizen of Tennessee. Mr. and Mrs. Dale will be at home after February 1st, at Nashville, Tenn.
